Helping Hands would like to welcome incoming Board members Barb Gossett, Deb Johnston, and Melanie Monroe. We are so thankful for their willingness to share their time and talents to further our mission of serving individuals and families in need of a helping hand.

Barb is a charter member, serving when the pantry opened in July of 2012. She has been a faithful volunteer throughout the life of the pantry. We are blessed to have this multi-talented gal serve with us. She will be taking over the monthly newsletter responsibilities.

Deb is a pantry veteran, returning to serve after one year off. She previously served in a number of capacities, including Secretary. Her wisdom, experience, and heart for serving others make her a valued asset to the pantry and the Roseville community. We are happy to welcome this inspiring lady back to the Board of directors.

Melanie is a newcomer to Helping Hands. We welcome this busy, home-schooling Mom to the ranks! We know Melanie will be a great asset to the Board. She plans to serve on the food committee, as well as maintain the pantry's Facebook presence.
