NEWSLETTER

December 2017

Established July, 2012

The Helping Hands Food Pantry of Roseville exists to improve quality of life for Warren County residents by providing assistance to families in need and by developing programs to strengthen families and individuals.

You're In A Community That Cares!

Donations from The Roseville Christian Church

Michael & Sara representing the Berwick Baptist Church

Roseville United Methodist Church gives generously

The Happy Hustlers 4H Club helps out again!

To think about the needs of others, to share, to give unselfishly—these are acts of kindness that show a special human quality. Helping Hands of Roseville is blessed to be supported by a very kind and generous community. Thank you!
